barely steady. The following prices were quoted on the exchange today:

returning. At the grounds the oands united for the dance program, making most delightful orchestra.

The expursion was made unusually attractive by the efforts of W. McK. Stowell and F. R. Dooley, of the excursion committee, who were untiring in their efforts. The dance programs, in the form of deposit books, were in great lemand as souvenirs of the occasion were also the other mementos. Young & Selden, of Baltimore, donated to the hapter the entire issue of this pass

WASHINGTON.

Business was more than ordinarial active on the local exchange today. The securities most conspicuous in the trading were Washington Street Railway and Capital Traction issues, Washington Gap, and Mergenthaler.

The Street Railway bonds & MR sold down from yesterday's level, $6,000 boing sold at 76%, and $10,000 at 76%. The preferred stock, on the other hand, experienced a fractional advance, selling at 56%, and two lots of ten each at 51.

Capital Traction stock was eagerly bought by a broker closely identified with that corporation, he paying 122 for 88 shares.

Washington Gas advanced 4 over yes terday's closing bid, 225 shares being sold at 57%.

Mergenthaler receded from yesterday's selling price, 80 shares being sold at 57%, a recession of 3s to 3%.

The telephones of from ten to fifteen stock exchange houses have been removed from the floor of the exchange. Among them are P. London, Cohen Greene, Robert S. Cahn, J. A. Blair, J. P. Pierson, Mendham Bron., Yates, Ritchie & Co., Raborg & Mounce, C. S. Shumacher, Jr., S. L. Blood, William H. Huxley, Jr., & Co., and Alley Conger. The stock exchange authorities are extremely reticent with regard to the reasons for this action, but it is rumored that the phones were removed because of arbitrage or other connections with the Consolidated Stock Exchange.

The tone of the London market is good and Americans, although quiet, show an upward tendency. The strongest features are St. Paul and Canadian Pacific. In regard to the latter it is said a strong bull pool has been formed and it will be put up considerably higher.

It is reported that John D. Rockefeller has been accumulating a preferred Steet, It is now thought that the regular 1¾, per cent dividend on the preferred will be declared at the July dividend meeting.

The governors of the stock exchange bers to close the exchange on Saturday, July 2.

The stocks of the American Steel

The stocks of the American Steel
Foundries Company, which were stricken from the list of the stock exchange in January last on account of an overstatement by $500,000 off the company's cash assets, have been readmitted to the stock exchange by the governors at their regular meeting. No official statement regarding the relisting was made, but one of the governors add that the original misstatement had been entirely unintentional and that the affairs of the company were in good shape.

It is rumored that the dividend on American Car and Foundry common will be discontinued at the next meeting.

Washington Chapter of Bank Clerks
Have Annual Outing at Marshall
Hall—Two Thousand Guests.

The second annual excursion of the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks took place last evening. The outing was at Marshall Hall, and two excursion boats, the Macalester and Arrowsmith, were needed to carry the large and jolly crowd. The evening turned out to be all that could be desired. Each boat had a band that put the members and guests of the chapter in good spirits, both going and returning. At the grounds the pands which does needed for the desired for the dates are research as a constraint of the chapter in good spirits, both going and returning. At the grounds the pands which does needed to create the preferred stock that is to be subscribed for.
